WAY IS PAVED FOR HOSPITAL ADDITION

Seen & Heard Around Murray

Heard about a new faculty member who refused to move into the new apartment which was offered to him. He heard it was only a stone's throw from the campus.

We went to see "The Fox" last week, and we have just gotten our eyes back in our head.

Phyllis Sykes sends a note from Detroit. Enjoys it there, but misses Murray. She has visited the Henry Ford Museum with its 175 antique automobiles.

A good reader comes in with the following: A farmer with oodles of dough. Had twenty-eight acres to mow. So he hired an aide Who laid in the shade And let all the dandelions grow.

Also: Big Gertie the gluttonous nurse, Ate everything just like a curse. When she finally died, she had grown so wide She just didn't fit in the hearse.

And still more you bird lovers: 'Sneagle, 'Snotneagle, 'Sowl.

Persons Urged To Buy License Plates To Avoid The Rush

Car and truck (through 18,000 pounds) owners in Murray and Calloway County are urged to get their 1969 license plates as soon as possible, according to the office of the Calloway County Court Clerk Douglas Shoemaker.

Sales of the plates at $12.50 each have been slow over the entire state. The deadline for buying the license is March 1.

In a classified ad in the Ledger & Times Shoemaker says that all individually owned out of state cars need to be licensed this week as it will be impossible for the personnel of the office to take care of these the last week.

Shoemaker also says in the ad that all dealers need an NADA book as the bills of sale for dealers must have the NADA price and model number. The office cannot take care of this over the telephone.

The clerk's office urges each person to get his license immediately as it will be impossible to take care of all the car and truck owners who have not purchased their licenses during the last few days of February.

Kidney Screening Project Plans Made Here Wednesday

Jack Adams, executive director of the Kentucky Kidney Foundation, met with representatives of the Murray Woman's Club, Hazel Woman's Club, and the Calloway County Health Department on Wednesday, February 12, to formulate plans for a testing program for kidney disease in grades one through six in all Murray and Calloway County Schools.

Adams told the group that the community is very fortunate in being able to provide its children with this service. He further added that Murray should be proud to be the first city in Kentucky to establish a kidney screening program.

Other towns will soon be participating in such programs, but Murray was the first to express interest and to take direct action.

The tests are planned for March 19, and detailed information will be furnished to parents prior to this date. Written permission from the parents will be required before tests can be made.

The testing is being done under the sponsorship of the Murray Woman's Club with assistance from the Calloway County Health Department, and will be done at no cost to the student's family.

About sixty volunteer workers from Murray and Hazel Woman's Clubs, the County Parent-Teacher Association, and a number of registered nurses will participate in this testing program which detects six kidney diseases.

These diseases are all curable or controllable if found in the early stage before they become symptomatic. Whereas, if not detected until symptoms appear, usually in adulthood, the kidney damage is irreparable and many times fatal.

Attending the meeting from the health department were Mrs. J. A. Outland and Mrs. Gail Dunn. Also present were Mrs. Lucille Ross, Calloway County Health Nurse, Mrs. J. W. Jones, president, Hazel Woman's Club, Mrs. Don Keller, president, Murray Woman's Club, Mrs. Jack Biley, public affairs chairman, Murray Club, Mrs. James E. Garrison, chairman of Kidney Project, Murray, and representatives of the ten departments of the Murray Women's Club.

St. Valentine's Day as a lovers' festival has no apparent relation to the saint or any incident in his life, but seems to be connected with the pagan Roman festival of the Lupercalia in mid-February.

City Council, And Court In Agreement On Financing

Action of the Murray City Council last night paved the way for the construction of the addition to the Murray Hospital. The council approved a resolution which sets forth the manner in which the city and county will divide any deficit which the hospital might be faced with in the annual payment of a proposed bond issue.

The Fiscal Court passed a similar resolution last Tuesday. Under the terms of the resolution the first $12,000 of any deficit will be divided evenly between the city and the county. Any over this $12,000 will be on a pro rata basis based on property and franchise taxes collected by the city and the county. 1968 will be used as a base year for future computations.

The possible deficit in question could come about if the hospital is unable to raise $76,000 each year for repayment of the bond issue. It is felt that the one million dollar bond issue for the new addition can be repaid in annual payments of $76,000. Money will come from revenue from the hospital operation.

Hospital officials feel that they can furnish at least $62,500 of the bond payment annually which would leave about $13,500 to be furnished by the city and county governments. At the present time this $13,500 will be divided about evenly between the city and the county. Arguments over division of the $13,500 have delayed construction on the new addition for six months. The addition was proposed last September and plans drawn. Bonds could not be sold however until the city and the county could get together on methods of repayment of any deficit the hospital might face.

It was brought out last night that actually the city and the county are fully liable for the entire bond issue in the event the hospital was unable to raise the present year's money.

After wrangling over the issue for several months, a group was finally appointed to arrive at a resolution which would be acceptable to both the City Council and the Fiscal Court. Efforts will now get underway to sell the bonds and contract the hospital addition.

About 52 beds will be added to the hospital with a wing that will proceed west from the mechanical building and by another wing which will join the present west wing of the hospital. The addition will be composed of two floors, however the foundation will be so that two more floors can be added at a later time. Much of the first floor will be taken with expanded administrative and service facilities, and the second floor will be for beds. When the third and fourth floors are constructed at a later time they will be in beds. Enough administrative and service space is included in the proposed

THE FAMILY LAWYER

Make the Parents Pay?

Playing football in front of his house, little Tommy crashed full tilt into a passing pedestrian. The man suffered painful injuries, and later sued Tommy's parents for damages.

"Their son was to blame," he contended in court. "Therefore, they ought to pay the bill." But the court found no liability. The judge said there was no reasonable way by which Tommy's parents could have prevented this kind of an accident.

In its decision, the court was following a general rule of law. With limited exceptions, parents cannot be held liable for damage done by their children—merely because of the relationship.

However, parents may indeed be responsible if, by their own negligence, they contribute to the injury. For instance:

The parents of a neighborhood bully were warned repeatedly about his viciousness. But they made no effort to mend his ways. So when the boy threw a younger child down and broke his leg, the parents were ordered to pay damages. The court said that, even though they hadn't exactly authorized what their son did, they had encouraged him by their hands-off attitude.

Parental liability may also come from entrusting a dangerous instrumentality to a child not yet ready for that kind of responsibility. What does the law mean by a "dangerous instrumentality"? Obvious examples are guns and cars, the use of which by children is often regulated by local statute.

But an instrumentality won't be classified as dangerous just because it is possible to hurt someone with it. Take this case: During a game of cowboys, a small boy inadvertently struck his playmate in the eye with a toy pistol. Could the boy's parents be held liable on the ground that they had entrusted a "dangerous instrumentality" to their son?

No, ruled a court, for that would be stretching language too far. The judge said: "The toy pistol is universally accepted as a child's play thing. If the instrumentality is not inherently dangerous and there is no negligence in its use, there is no liability even though, because of accident, damage is caused."

Privacy May Be Invaded

By PATRICIA MCCORMACK

NEW YORK UPI—Some college students get black marks beside their names.

A brush with the law? It's recorded on his record - which is fed into a computer. Presumably there it stays for life, available to snoopers of all stripes.

Ruth Jass, registrar at Bradley University, Peoria, Ill., fears that this "big brother" aspect of computers may come to be an invasion of privacy.

Further Information

Reporting in the journal "College Management," Miss Jass said the college computers gather and remember information ranging from I. Q., and home town to any brushes with the law.

"Talk is prevalent about campuswide, statewide and nationwide data banks, using equipment which is interconnected for easy input and retrieval of stored data," she said.

Once data is on tape, disks or cards, what is to prevent its duplication on other tapes? What safeguards are available to guarantee that unauthorized persons will not extract data? And who is to determine who is authorized?

The computer people tell Miss Jass records are as secure as a padlock. You can't get to them without the combination.

"But padlock security," she said, "is not enough if the combination is known to a great many people."

Adding To Dilemma

MSU Track Team In Mason-Dixon

By JOE TOM ERWIN
 The Murray State track team, which won one triangular meet and placed third in another last week, will have three individuals and its mile relay team participating in the Mason-Dixon Games in Louisville this weekend.

Sprinter Eddie Hearne will run the 70-yard dash. Tommy Turner the 600-yard run, and Darrell Remole the mile. Hearne and Turner will be in open events. Remole will run in the Kentuckians Mile and the mile relay, consisting of Larry Coleman, Al Hicks, Leroy McGinnis, and Turner, in the Collegiate Mile Relay.

Turner, who finished second in the NCAA 600 last year, won the event in a meet at Purdue last Thursday in 1:11.4, a new Purdue field house record. His best time last season was 1:09.2.

Remole and the mile relay team also won their events at Purdue last Thursday in 1:11.4, a new Purdue field house record. His best time last season was 1:09.2.

The Racers won a triangular meet at Ball State last Saturday with 88% points to Ball State's 74, and Taylor University's 84. The Racers won 13 of 16 events in that meet. Among the winners were Turner in the 440 and 300 yard dashes; McGinnis, the 600 yard dash and the 800 yard run; Ed Smith, the 70-yard high and low hurdles; Don Stout, the long and the triple jump; Bob Hargrove, the high jump; Tim Sparks, the shot put; Doug Morris, the pole vault, and the mile relay team.

Wildcats Will Play Florida; Rupp After 800th (805th?)

By DAVID MOFFIT

ATLANTA (AP) — Kentucky's Adolph Rupp doesn't agree that his 800th basketball victory is at stake Saturday when his 4th-ranked Wildcats visit the University of Florida.

The 55-year-old "Bluegrass" now in his 39th season as cage coach at Kentucky, contends he reached that plateau more than two weeks ago and that an expected victory over Florida would tie his 800th.

That because Rupp insists on counting five victories in 1966 in Israel which the Southeastern Conference says were exhibitions — and thus not kosher. "We keep hearing about the controversy over whether Coach Rupp is going after his 800th or 805th victory, but we've never heard officially from the NCAA on the matter," said Kentucky sports publicist Ken Kuhn.

"Until we get an official ruling otherwise, we're going to stick to the higher figure," Kuhn added. "Our playing in that tournament in Israel was sanctioned by the NCAA — so why shouldn't the games count."

"Not so," countered Southeastern Conference publicist Elmore Hudgins. "We've checked with the NCAA and those five games are not being counted. So far as we are concerned, Rupp is going after 800 Saturday."

Rupp, Kuhn and Hudgins agree on one thing. If the Wildcats win Saturday, the controversy will be mainly academic. "This is one of Rupp's better teams," said Hudgins. "The way the Wildcats have been handling the other teams in the SEC, don't be surprised to see them going against UCLA in the NCAA finals."

How about 2nd-ranked North Carolina which beat Kentucky 87-77 at Lexington, Ky., back on Dec. 7?

"Kentucky isn't the same team now," Hudgins replied. "That was Mike Pratt's first game after breaking his finger and he was playing in a cast. The Wildcats are a lot stronger now that Pratt is completely well."

There's little doubt that Kentucky, well on its way to its 24th SEC crown in the league's 37-year history, will earn its 18th NCAA berth. The Wildcats, 17-2 overall and 11-0 in SEC play, have already eliminated everybody except Tennessee, 9-2 in the conference and 14-3, overall, Saturday will be at Georgia, which visits independent Georgia Tech tonight. In other Saturday action there are no games at Alabama, Auburn at Louisiana State, Mississippi at Mississippi State, Dayton at Florida State, Tulane at Georgia Tech, and Loyola La. at Miami.

In Wednesday night's action Pete Maravich put on another shooting exhibition, getting 50 points, but LSU lost again — 95-79 to Florida. Neal Walk scored 34 points and Andy Owens 23 to pace the Gettys to their 12th victory in 19 out-gings. LSU is 10-9.

Ken Turner sank 27 points to lead Mississippi to a 73-67 upset of snakebit Vanderbilt, which fell to sixth place in the SEC standings with a 5-7 conference record. Vandy's center Bob Bundy left the game with a broken wrist after three and one-half minutes of play.

Auburn jumped off to a good lead against Mississippi State, holding a 20-point advantage at half-time, and cruised to an 87-68 victory.

HOPES BOOSTED
 LAKE PLACID, N. Y. (AP) — First and fifth place finishes in Thursday's final practice runs boosted American hopes for this weekend's two-man world bobsled championships.

Gary Sheffield and brakeman Howard Siler, representing the U. S. Air Force, turned in the best single and two heat times of the day—1:09.25 and 2:18.85.

NEW YORK (UPI) — Sonny Jurgensen can't wait. "I'm ready to start tomorrow," he says. "Silly boy!"

He doesn't know what he's in for. Maybe he only thinks he's ready. Wait'll he gets a load of what it's like the first day under Vince Lombardi, a man who wasn't the least bit sensitive about taking the phrase "labor pains" out of obstetrics and putting it into pro football.

Sonny Jurgensen has a surprise in store for him that first day, already moved up by Lombardi. The same may be said for the rest of the Washington Redskins who haven't exactly led the league in living the spartan life. Up to now, anyway.

Some of the Green Bay Packers are thinking of getting up a pool. The winner would be the one coming closest to guessing the number of survivors after the Redskins' opening day of practice under Lombardi.

"At first they'll be afraid they're gonna die," laughs one Packers veteran. "Then they'll be afraid they won't."

Forewarned is forearmed. Most Redskins players claim they know all about Lombardi and his methods. They quickly add they welcome The Great Healer, his

Ky. Wesleyan Accepts Bid To NCAA

OWENSBORO, Ky. (UPI) — Kentucky Wesleyan, again rated No. 1 in the nation in this week's UPI small college basketball ratings, Thursday they accepted an invitation to play in the NCAA post-season College Division Tournament.

Wesleyan, which began this season with a 29-game winning streak for the past two years, will play in the regional competition March 7 and 8. A site has not yet been selected for the regional.

If Wesleyan wins, the Panthers will travel to Evansville, Ind., for the finals March 12, 13 and 14.

Selection of teams for the post-season game is based on season records. Wesleyan now has a season log of 17 and 3.

Racers face perhaps their toughest weekend doubleheader of the season when Eastern and Morehead come to town.

The Racers will play Eastern Saturday night and Morehead Monday. Eastern helped put Murray back on top in the league by beating Western Kentucky Monday and Morehead tied with Western for second place, is one of the two OVC teams to beat the Racers.

The win over Tech gave Murray an 82 conference record and an 18-4 overall record, one of the best in the nation for a college team. It also left the Racers in a strong position to win their second OVC title in a row. Three of their remaining four games are at home and should win the three they would have at least a tie for the title. Following the Eastern and Morehead games, they will play at East Tennessee, Feb. 22, and then close out the season March 1 against Western at Murray. Both Morehead and Western have three road games left on their schedules.

Coach Cal Luther tabbed Eastern the hottest team in the league after reviewing the scouting reports from their game with Western. "They've been playing great basketball of late," he said. "They've won six of their last eight games, and they may have the best defense and ball handling in the league. They'll really be tough for us to beat."

Murray squeaked out a 79-78 win early in the season at Eastern but lost to Morehead on the same road trip, 111-78.

Bobby Washington leads Eastern in scoring with an average of 18.8. Willie Woods is averaging 16.5, Toke Coleman 12.7, Boyd Lynch 11.9 and Carl Greenfield 9.6.

Claude Virden, who had one of his best games of the year at Tech, continues to lead the Racers in scoring with 22.5 points a game and in rebounding with 11.0. Hector Blondett is averaging 15.2 points, Jim Young 11.4, Ron Johnson 10.2.

Lombardi doesn't stand for. He is a talented man and with his application to the game and his way of handling people, I think he's gonna make us a family. What's more, he's gonna make Washington a winner."

Many other Redskin players are beginning to believe the same way as Jurgensen. Lombardi talked the only way he knew how, like a winner, as soon as he picked up the Redskins' reins and his optimism obviously spilled over to his players, most of whom he hasn't even spoken with yet. The Great Healer has administered the first shot and it seems to be taking beautifully.

points and 10.8 rebounds, and Don Funneman 6.3 points.

Luther called the Tennessee Tech game a great win for the Racers but not one of their better performances. "We had a bad first half but managed to stay within striking distance, and when our play improved in the second half, we squeaked out the win," he said.

Luther gave much of the credit for the win to reserves Jim

Jets Get Record Winners Share

NEW YORK (AP) — The New York Jets received a record American Football League winner's share for the 1968 title game Thursday when each full share amounted to $5,349.42.

Milt Woodard, league president, announced that the Oakland Raiders collected a record for a losing team as each full share amounted to $5,349.42. The Jets beat the Raiders 27-23 in the championship game that drew record receipts of $1,108,214.88. New York awarded 49 5-14 shares and Oakland 52 5-14 shares to their respective personnel.

The record payoff beat the previous high of $6,321.77 received by Raider players in 1967 and the $4,956.45 taken home by each losing Houston Oilers player after the game.

Value Showdown:

Match these features against what competition gives you for the same kind of money, and you'll have a better idea why more people are buying Chevrolets again this year.

Built-in "guard rails"

There's a strong steel beam built into every door of every 1969 Caprice, Impala, Bel Air, Biscayne, Kingswood, Townsman and Brookwood.

We call it a side guard beam, and it looks like one of those guard rails you see along the freeway.

That's what it's there for: To guard you. To strengthen the door and put a more solid wall between you and the outside world.

Not a glamorous feature. But you'll have to admit worthwhile.

Computer-selected springs

Maybe you'll order your new Chevy equipped to the hilt. Or maybe you'll order it with hardly anything on it.

Either way, you're going to get your full measure of our renowned ride.

Because we go to the trouble of programming each car's equipment load into an electronic computer.

The computer then tells us exactly which springs to use, depending on the car's weight and the way it's distributed.

Chevrolet, the only car in its field with computer-selected springs.

Fenders inside fenders

We could have skipped this. (The other cars in our field do.) But we're as anxious as you are to keep your beautiful new Chevy looking beautiful and new.

So...

Up inside the regular fenders we've placed a second set. They do all the in-fighting. Catch all the splashed-up rain, slush and road salt. Stop the kicked-up stones.

While your "outers" just sit there looking pretty.

Astro Ventilation

The other two cars in our field give you air intakes down by the floor.

So do we.

We also give you two up on the instrument panel.

And all four of them are adjustable so you can regulate the flow of air just the way you like it.

Even with all the windows closed, you'll be comfortable inside. You get air without wind. Without noise.

Astro Ventilation is standard, now, on all the big Chevrolets.

The theft-thwarter

On the steering column there's a lock.

Only Chevrolet has it, in Chevrolet's field.

You turn the key and it locks three things: — Your ignition. — Your steering wheel. — Your shift lever.

When you own a car this tempting, you don't dare take chances.

Biggest standard V8 in our field

Ask any car enthusiast, he'll tell you: Chevrolet builds great engines. Especially V8s.

And this year there are six great V8s available for the big Chevrolet. Standard: Our 235-hp 327-cubic-inch Turbo-Fire.

Another thing: We've lowered the price of several of our bigger V8s along with our automatic transmissions and power disc brakes. Which makes it possible for you to buy a '69 Chevrolet for even less money than you could last year.

Show up for our Showdown. You can't lose.

Putting you first, keeps us first.

Miss Alice Jane Heck Exchanges Vows With Gerald Lee Boling In Lovely Ceremony At First Methodist Church

MRS. GERALD LEE BOLING

Miss Alice Jane Heck became the bride of Gerald Lee Boling in a beautiful candlelight ceremony at four-thirty o'clock in the afternoon on Friday, the seventeenth of January, in the Chapel of the First United Methodist Church in Murray.

The bride is the daughter of Mrs. Hazel Jones Heck of Owensboro, and Raymond D. Heck of Sunnyside, California, and the groom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Curtis E. Boling of Owensboro.

Dr. Samuel Dodson, Jr., performed the impressive double ring ceremony before an altar adorned with two burning white tapers in brass holders and with arrangements of white carnations and greenery. The setting was further enhanced by two brass candelabra which held burning white tapers.

Miss Sharon Boling, sister of the groom, was the organist, and Mrs. Joe Doran, of Murray, was the soloist.

Miss Boling presented a lovely program of organ music preceding the ceremony. The traditional wedding march was used for the bride's procession and recessional. Mrs. Doran sang "Whither Thou Goest" preceding the ceremony.

Bride's Dress
The bride, given in marriage by her brother, Charles David, wore a formal length gown fashioned by her mother of white mace crepe, and was designed with skimmer silhouette in princess lines. Organs ruching outlined the high neckline and tapered sleeves and formed an edging around the hemline. Her shoulder length bouffant veil of English illusion was held by a rosette of organza. Her only jewelry was a pair of pearl earrings, a gift of the groom. She carried a beautiful bridal bouquet of white carnations and stephanotis centered with a large white orchid. A jeweled heart was attached in the center of the orchid.

Miss Lissane Heck, sister of the bride, served as the maid of honor. She wore a formal emerald green princess gown fashioned of cut velvet. A matching velvet bow held her brief veil, and she carried a single long-stemmed pale green carnation with white streamers and ferns.

Ricky Evans of Owensboro served the groom as best man. Charles Stewart Robertson of Lexington served as the usher.

The guest registry was kept by Miss Mariann Wilson of Murray.

The bride's mother selected a three piece knit ensemble of pale yellow. She chose brown accessories and at her shoulder she wore a corsage of white carnations trimmed with copper ribbons.

Mrs. Boling, mother of the groom, was attired in a blue knit suit and she wore black accessories. Pinned at her shoulder was a corsage of white carnations with blue ribbons.

Mrs. Alice Jones, grandmother of the bride, and Mrs. Helen Young, grandmother of the groom, each wore a corsage of white carnations.

The bride-elect chose to wear from her trousseau a two piece dress and jacket ensemble of light blue wool.

Mrs. Elizabeth Thompson, aunt of the honoree, wore a dusty pink knit suit trimmed with suede. The mother of the bride-elect was unable to attend.

The bride-to-be was presented with an electric percolator by the hostesses.

Mrs. Corbit Farless Elected President Of Church Women United At Recent Meet

Mrs. Corbit C. Farless was elected president of the Church Women United of Murray and Calloway County at the business meeting held Friday, February 7, at the First Presbyterian Church.

The new president is from Goshen United Methodist Church. She and her husband returned to Murray about three years ago to make their home on the Coldwater Road after he had retired from his work in Chicago, Ill. Their son, Rev. Robert Farless, is a Methodist minister.

Mrs. Edd Glover of the North Pleasant Grove Cumberland Presbyterian Church was elected as treasurer for the ensuing term.

Other officers whose terms do not expire for another year are Mrs. Clarence Horton, vice-president; Mrs. Alfred Lindsey, second vice-president; Mrs. Lillian Graves, secretary.

Mrs. William M. Porter of the First Christian Church, the outgoing president, gave a devotional message containing a challenge to greater commitment to the cause of Christ and His Kingdom.

The outgoing president also conducted the installation of officers. The service was based on the Scripture passage, John 15:16: "Ye have not chosen me, but I have chosen you... that ye should go and bring forth fruit, and that your fruit should remain; that whatsoever ye shall ask of the Father in my name, He may give it to you."

All those present arose to a standing ovation in tribute to Mrs. Porter's faithful and effective service in the office of president.

Mrs. Farless, new president, conducted the business session. Mrs. C. B. Crawford, chairman for the Church World Service Clothing Drive, announced that the Clothing Collection deadline has been changed to March 24.

Announcement was made of the following dates: World Day of Prayer, March 7, ten a.m. First Christian Church, theme: "Growing Together in Christ"; May Fellowship Day, May 2, eleven a.m. (potluck) Immanuel Lutheran Church, theme: "Be-cause of Him"; Assembly, Church Women United of Kentucky, May 6-7, Hopkinsville.

Preceding the meeting coffee and doughnuts were served by the women of the First Presbyterian Church during a fifteen minutes' fellowship period.

"On My Honor"

The Boy Scouts of America have another anniversary February 7. What a blessing the Scout organization has been to countless youths of America, and to all the world. Every Scout in every troop is a reverent, patriotic individual who is committed to live and work for God and Country. They are taught religious obligations by spiritual teachers, Scout leaders and by their parents. When a Scout recites, "On My Honor," he means it. When he says, "I Will Do My Best To Build, Serve and Achieve," believe him. Just let him quote, "I Will Do All To The Glory of God," and all of us want to sponsor his troop. Every boy who becomes a Scout, grows to be a better man. Encourage every boy to join a troop during their 59th Anniversary February 7-13, 1969.

This is National Electrical Week and a few facts come out of it that will astound the average person.

Electricity used by manufacturing industries has increased by 54 per cent since 1958.

The industry employs 3 million Americans and spends 2.5 billion each year in research.

American electrical power capacity is greater than that of Japan, Russia, the United Kingdom and West Germany combined. We produce 30 per cent of the world's total electrical power while serving only 6 per cent of the world's population.

Demand for electricity in the US doubles every ten years.

New for a little education. Yeah, we know you already know this, but this is for those who didn't.

Ampere: a unit of measure for the quantity or volume of electricity moving through a conductor — compares with the amount of water flowing through a pipe.

Volt: a unit of measure for the pressure of electricity moving through a conductor — compares with the pounds of pressure of water.

Watt: a measure of electric power equal to one ampere forced through a circuit by one volt of pressure.

Kilowatt: a unit of power equal to 1000 watts or 1.34 horsepower.

Kilowatt-hour: a unit of work or energy equal to that expended in one hour at a steady rate of one kilowatt.

JURY SEES FILM

much-discussed color-motion picture that now is being shown publicly for the first time. The 55-year-old defendant has vacated his seat to give the jury a good view.

Judge Edward A. Haggerty Jr. has ruled that the film seen previously only by the Warren Commission may be shown as a state exhibit along with Zapruder's testimony because it is relevant and by law the state "can overrule its case as it desires". Shaw is accused of conspiring but not killing.

The all-male jury seems stunned, faces blank. The previous witness, Robert H. West, has said he stood at the edge of Dealey Plaza at that moment and heard four shots, not three as the Warren Report said, and they seemed to come from in front of the Kennedy limousine, not the back the way the report said.

County Surveyor West is county surveyor of Dallas. He said he never testified before the Warren Commission and was never queried by the FBI.

This premier showing stems from the opening statement of Dist. Atty. Jim Garrison: "You will be able to see — in color motion picture — the president . . . fall backwards as the fatal shot strikes him from the front — not the back but the front."

Zapruder, a Dallas manufacturer of ladies' dresses and an amateur photographer, set the stage for the film by telling what he saw as he stood on a concrete abutment with his camera.

"The first shot, he grabbed himself in the chest, he demonstrated with both hands clutching and leaned toward Jackie. The second shot he leaned about the same way and then down toward the bottom of the car. I saw his head practically open up and blood and whatever it was — brains — just came out of his head."

The Thursday session ended with testimony by Buell Wesley Frazier of Dallas, who worked with Oswald in the Book Depository from which the Warren Report says three shots were fired. He said he drove Oswald to work the fatal day and watched him enter the building carrying a brown paper package about the size of a broken-down rifle.

He said he heard three shots that day — a few seconds' pause after the first and then two "fired right back to back."

He demonstrated for the prosecution by hitting his palm against the judge's bench. Slap . . . slap-slap.

Chief Defense Attorney F. Irvin Dymond spent the day doing what he earlier had protested he would be forced to do — defending the Warren Report.

WAY PAVED

first floor to handle all three floors above it.

Leonard Vaughn, member of the housing commission said last night that he doubts seriously if the city or the county will have to furnish any deficit funds over the $6,000 and possibly not even have to furnish that figure. It was pointed out that speed is essential now because construction costs are rising each month.

J. H. Shackelford of the firm of Shackelford, Goode and Thurman reviewed the audit for the city of Murray for the past year. The city ended the year in the black.

The audit shows that income for the city over 1967 was about $7,000. Expenditures were up about this much in 1968 caused primarily by salary increases of city employees.

Mayor Ellis pointed out that in 1968 the Murray Electric System paid $5,900 because of the controversy which is raging over the amount of in-lieu-of-tax payments due by TVA supplied power systems. Approximately $10,000 more is anticipated from the Murray Electric System if they pay according to Senate Bill 288 which provides that the systems pay according to the payments made in 1965. It was in 1966 that all property was assessed at 100 per cent for the first time, a factor which precipitated the current controversy.

The council voted last night on salaries for elected officials to take effect next year. The offices concerned are mayor, city council, city judge, and city prosecuting attorney.

The proposal was presented by Preston Ordway, Chairman of the Finance Committee of the council.

Following are the salaries which were approved by the council showing what the office pays now and what the new salary will be.

Office	Present	For 1970
Mayor	$3,000	$4,000
Council	$15.00	Same
Per Meeting
Judge	$3,000	$4,200
Prosecutor	$1,800	$2,400

As is indicated above the city council did not increase the remuneration received by council members. They are paid for two meetings per month for a total of $30.00. Other salaries listed are annual salaries.

None of the offices listed above will enjoy the pay increase this year. Those persons elected this year to fill the offices will get the higher pay.

Mayor Ellis told the council that he was fortunate to be able to give as much of his time to the office of Mayor and not interfere with his position as General Manager of the Western Dark Fired Tobacco Growers Association. He said that he could force the time when the mayor, whom he might be, would have to give his full time to the office and he paid accordingly.

The city will take bids on a new pickup truck for the Murray Sanitation System and a new dump truck for the Murray Water & Sewer System.

Leonard Vaughn, Chairman of the Water and Sewer Committee reported that the Bee Creek sewer line bids have been sent out and they expect to hear from contractors by March 13. This is a main trunk line and will serve the city north of Chestnut Street.

Eugene Roberts and Brooks Harris were named as new patrolmen. Kenneth Keel tendered his resignation from the Police Department.

Final reading of the new zoning ordinance was made and the council approved the ordinance. It is now law.

Bob Billington was named to the Murray Planning Commission replacing Harry Fenton who offered his resignation.

The low bid was accepted on a high service pump for the water system which will double the capacity of the pumping station. Ulmer Equipment Company won the bid on an Allis-Chalmers pump at $3,422.00. Shouse-Brill Company bid $4,281.00 and DeLaval Turbine Company bid $4,328.00.

Look At Self To Know God Exists

By LOUIS CASSELS

By United Press International

Dr. Elton Trueblood, the esteemed Quaker philosopher, says a man has only to look at himself to find a powerful argument for the existence of God.

This argument is developed in his new book, "A Place to Stand," published this week by Harper and Row.

"There are many good reasons for knowing that God really exists," says Dr. Trueblood. "But no reason is more compelling than that which is involved in understanding what it is to be a person."

If modern men and women wish to follow a genuinely scientific method in formulating their ideas about God, they will begin not with abstract speculations but with the "experienced fact" of their own existence as persons.

"We may never be able to know whether there are thinking, self-conscious and partly self-directing beings anywhere else in the universe. But we know that such beings exist in this century on one of the smaller planets, in orbit around one particular sun."

"This may seem to obvious to mention, because it is common knowledge. But it is certainly not too obvious to examine. It is, indeed, one of the most important of all known facts."

From the viewpoint of formulating a philosophy about the origin and nature of the universe, Dr. Trueblood says, the great significance of persons is that they clearly belong to another order of reality. "Because there are persons," he says, "we know that in addition to bodies, such as the forms of rocks, which do not feel, and in addition to animals, which do not make moral distinctions, there are beings who are able to entertain conscious purposes and to care."

Anyone who meditates on the "amazing fact" that such beings have emerged in an apparently unfeeling material universe is bound to find himself asking, sooner or later, "What kind of world it must take to produce such an emergence."

Obviously, it is a world in which there are physical, mental and spiritual levels of existence.

And the undeniable reality of the latter two levels points toward a personal God as creator.

"Here is the most difficult problem to be faced by the person who seeks to deny that,

And the undeniable reality of the latter two levels points toward a personal God as creator.

"Here is the most difficult problem to be faced by the person who seeks to deny that,

Guy Lovins

Announces

For

State Representative

My parents were the former E. W. and Virgie Lovins. They were humble but Godly parents who brought their five children up in the fear and admonition of the Lord. My wife is the former Annie Blalock.

I attended the rural schools of Calloway County. I received my Masters Degree from Murray State University during 1954. I have served as teacher, principal and Guidance Director in the various schools throughout Calloway County. To supplement my income, my wife and I operated a grocery and fishing tackle business for a number of years. I am a member of the Poplar Springs Baptist Church and take an active part in the affairs of the church.

I am not on any federal, state, or local payroll. If elected as your Representative I shall be free to give my full time to representing YOU.

I shall try to correct errors when shown to be errors, and I shall adopt new views when shown to be true views. My prayer shall be the prayer of Solomon; "Give therefore thy servant an understanding heart to judge thy people, that I may discern between good and bad; for who is able to judge this thy so great a people."

There are many people to see and contacts to be made in both Trigg and Calloway Counties. Annie and I hope to see each of you personally, but should we fail we sincerely solicit your votes, your prayers, and your influence.

Sincerely,

GUY LOVINS

Candidate for State Representative
